

Laksasubha Hua Hin Resort

Laksasubha Hua Hin Resort – named after its current owner, who built the hotel on her ancestors' land – embodies the charm of Hua Hin, the preferred retreat of Thai nobility for over a century.

The owner, who spent her childhood summers in the tropical garden and by the beach, strives to recreate the idyllic atmosphere of those days. Her personal touch is evident throughout the resort, and she warmly greets guests during breakfast or afternoon tea.

Located right on the beach in the heart of Hua Hin, the resort offers a choice between leisurely days by the sea and pool or exploring the city's numerous attractions. Indulge in a traditional Thai spa treatment at Zaanti Spa or maintain your fitness routine in the gym.

At Rim Talay Restaurant, situated on the beachfront, start your day with breakfast while enjoying the sunrise over the sea. Light lunches are served during the day, and in the evening, Rim Talay transforms into a restaurant and bar offering both Thai and international cuisine. La Costa Bar, located by the infinity pool at the beach, serves colorful cocktails and fresh juices throughout the day, while Rim Saa Juice Bar by the pool in the heart of the resort offers healthy drinks and snacks.

The resort is deeply committed to the local community, supporting local initiatives and employing local staff. There is also a strong environmental focus, with opportunities for guests to participate in eco-friendly activities.
